Re: Chaplain service at Philmont Scout Ranch

The Office of Civic Youth-Serving Agencies/Scouting (OCYSA/S), General Commission on United Methodist Men (GCUMM), the United Methodist Church, is in the process of identifying chaplains for paid service at Philmont Scout Ranch, Cimarron, New Mexico, a Boy Scouts of America high adventure base.

Primary qualifications include being a United Methodist pastor (ordained preferred), active or retired. Advanced seminary students will also be considered as well as military chaplains, youth ministers, deacons and related positions.

Candidates need to be in good physical condition and have an interest in the spiritual well-being of scouting youth and scout leaders in a variety of outdoor settings.

Interested candidates should complete the enclosed survey and return by the date marked to the Office of Scouting Ministries. We invite you to share this information with qualified and interested persons at your earliest convenience.

If you have questions as you review this material, please contact Larry Coppock, National Director, Scouting Ministries, at 615-620-7261 (phone), by fax at 615-340-1770, by email at lcoppock@gcumm.org, or write GCUMM, PO Box 340006, Nashville, TN, 37203-0006.

Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Grace and Peace,

Larry Coppock
